

“BRAVE NEW WORLD”

Witness – written and sung by Tommy

Expands Styx’s boundaries of diversity and once again showcases them as a vocal group extraordinaire.

Brave New World – written by JY and Tommy, sung by Tommy Takes us on a World Music Trip, asking the question, “How do I know there’s a place for me? It brings to mind images of ancient Egypt in a psychedelic musical voyage.

While There’s Still Time – written and sung by Dennis

This unmistakable voice reminds us not to waste a minute of love’s precious time.

Number One – written and sung by Tommy

As close to a rock anthem as Styx has come in a long time, it takes a sarcastic look at the concept of taking a little pill to numb the challenges of everyday life.

Best New Face – written and sung by Tommy

A straightforward rock song with a catchy hook that tips its hat to T Rex.

What Have They Done To You – written and sung by JY

A friendly intervention asking “Where have you gone?”

Fallen Angel – written and sung by Dennis

A great story by a master storyteller reminding us to be careful who we follow, because they may just take you with them when they fall short.
