

Everything Is Cool – written and sung by Tommy

A straight-ahead rock song that emerges from a chaotic dreamscape of sound and which showcases the band's strong vocal harmonies.

Great Expectations – written and sung by Dennis

A classic Styx sounding song which examines the pressures of a world that insists upon each new accomplishment being bigger than what came before.

Heavy Water – written and sung by JY

An apocalyptic rave of the pitfalls of man as he copes with technology.

High Crimes and Misdemeanors – written and sung by Dennis

While it doesn't name names, it does laugh at the contradiction of lawmakers who break the laws they make.

Just Fell In – written and sung by Tommy

Big band horns combine with tongue and cheek lyrics ("I just fell into a manic depression and I really want to spend it with you") to represent the fun side of Styx.

Goodbye Roseland – written and sung by Dennis

A heartfelt farewell to a childhood place that once seemed like the entire universe, but has now been lost to a world that insists things change.
